You must pay the state-imposed assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) if all of the following applies to you:

1. You are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition either by cash guaranteed student loans, or personal loans, and
2. Your total charges are not paid by any third-party payer such as an employer, government program or other payer unless you have a separate agreement to repay the third party.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment if either of the following applies:

1. You are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program, or
2. Your total charges are not paid by any third-party such as an employer, government program or other payer, and you have no separate agreement to repay the third party.

The State of California created the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to receive or mitigate economic losses suffered by students in educational programs who are California residents or are enrolled in a residency program attending certain schools regulated by the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education.

You may be eligible for STRF if you are a California resident or are enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid the STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

1. The school closed before the course of instruction was completed.
2. The school's failure to pay refunds or charges on behalf of a student to a third party for license fees or any other purpose, or to provide equipment or materials for which a charge was collected within 180 days before the closure of the school.
3. The school's failure to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federally guaranteed student loan program as required by law or to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the school prior to closure in excess of tuition and other costs.
4. There as a material failure to comply with the Act of this Division within 30 days before the school closed or, if the material failure began earlier than 30 days prior to closure, the period determined by the Bureau.
5. An inability after diligent efforts to prosecute, prove, and collect on a judgement against the institution for a violation of the Act.

However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.

Billing of Tuition. Bills are mailed at least 30 days prior to the start of each term. Payments are to be remitted on or before the due date indicated on the statement (this date is typically one week prior to the term start date). Always refer to your account online for the most up to date balance information.

Late Payment Fee. Students will be assessed a late payment fee if acceptable payment arrangements are not made by the due date indicated on the statement. Acceptable payment arrangements include payment in full, pending financial aid, approved third-party billing (i.e. veterans) and an active and current payment plan with the Bursar's Office.

More About Tuition, Payment and Refunds. Please see the Academic Catalog, pages 24-29.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

You have the right to cancel or withdraw and receive a refund of 100% of the amount paid for institutional charges, less the STRF of $0.00, and a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed $250, through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, if notice of cancellation is received on or before the right to cancel date. See table below.

First Term of Enrollment 2018-2019 Academic Year	Application Deadline	Classes Begin	Right to Cancel Date

REFUNDS & REPAYMENT

Students who withdraw from Cambridge College after having paid the current term charges or receiving financial aid are subject to the following refund and repayment policies.

Federal guidelines mandate that tuition, fees, and other related charges are prorated based upon each student's enrollment status. Tuition and fees may be refunded. No other charges are refundable.

REFUNDS & REPAYMENT—STUDENTS RECEIVING TITLE IV FINANCIAL AID

Exit Counseling. All borrowers of federal student loans must complete federally mandated exit counseling when graduating or dropping to less than half-time enrollment status. Exit counseling prepares students for repayment. Students must do the exit counseling in its entirety, with complete and correct information; otherwise the degree, diploma, and official transcripts will be withheld.

To complete the exit interview online, go to www.studentloans.gov, and click on Exit Counseling.

Repayment of Federal Funds. Students receiving federal financial aid, who withdraw from the College or stop attending all classes during a term before more than 60% of the term has elapsed, are subject to specific federal regulations.

The amount of Title IV aid that you must repay is determined by the federal formula for return of Title IV funds as specified in Section 484B of the Higher Education Act.

The amount of Title IV aid that you earned during the term before you withdrew is calculated by multiplying the total aid for which you qualified by the percentage of time in the term that you were enrolled (college work-study not included).

Your disbursement or repayment owed:

- If less aid was disbursed to you than you earned, you may receive a late disbursement for the difference.
- If more aid was disbursed to you than you earned, you will be billed for the amount you owe to the Title IV programs and any amount due to the College resulting from the return of Title IV funds used to cover College charges.

Cambridge College will return the unearned aid to Title IV programs as specified by law.

Students who have received federal student financial aid funds are entitled to a refund of any moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds (see below).
