You are invited to take part in a research survey about [fill in topic of study]. Participation in this survey will require approximately [fill in your best estimate] minutes. There are no known risks or discomforts associated with this survey. The possible benefits of participation in this study are [insert benefits that can be reasonably expected to either the participant or academic knowledge more broadly]. Taking part in this study is completely voluntary. If you choose to be in the study, you can withdraw at any time without adversely affecting your relationship with anyone at [insert the name of the school/organization where you are recruiting your participants] or at Cambridge College. Your responses will be kept strictly confidential, and digital data will be stored in secure computer files. Any report of this research that is made available to the public will neither include your name, nor any other information by which you could be identified. [If the survey is completely anonymous, insert the following statement instead: No identifiable information will be collected from the participants and no identifiable responses will be presented in the final form of this study.] If you have questions or want a copy or summary of this study's results, you can contact the researcher at the email address above. If you have any questions about whether you have been treated in an illegal or unethical way, contact the coordinator of the Cambridge College Institutional Research Board, Dr. Laurie Rosner at lrosner@baypath.edu or 413-565-1404. Please feel free to print a copy of this page to keep for your records.

Clicking the "Next" button below indicates that you are 18 years of age or older, and that you consent to participate in this survey. [Modify this sentence if the "click to continue" button is called something other than "Next" or if the participant needs to check a "Yes" box.]

[If the survey is not administered online, insert the following statement instead: By filling out this survey, you are indicating that you are at least 18 years old and that you consent to participate in this survey.]
